Consensus of Mastery: End of Semester/Unit Exams

Use this time to design an end of semester exam, aligned with the rubric scales. If you have already completed an end of semester exam, use this time to align it with the rubrics.

OR

Review rubric scales for future units. Use this time to discuss alignment of your exams and the rubric scales.

This is protected time to work on your end of semester exam or any unit exams you have to be sure they are aligned.
