

"A high-functioning team shares strategies, models lessons for each other, learns and tries new strategies together."

Teachers improve their professional practice in practical ways by using their own student data as a means for collaboratively improving what they do."

Hansen, A. (2015). How to Develop PLCs for Singletons and Small Schools.