Advisory (A and D days)

All students are assigned to an advisory - a small group setting where students receive support and guidance in social, emotional, and academic skill-building as well as post-secondary planning.

FLT: Focused Learning Time (B, C, E, and F Days)

Focused Learning Time is a flexible period where students receive timely, differentiated support in the form of reteaching, intervention, and enrichment. Students schedule their FLT time on A-Days in their advisory with the assistance of their faculty advisor, using the Enriching Students software scheduling program.

* Lunch Assignments *

There are two lunch periods at Sanborn, and they happen in the 10:30 AM - 12:00 PM time frame. Students/teachers either have lunch 1 and then attend their period 4 or 5 class (depending on the day), or they attend their period 4 or 5 class and then have lunch 2. The physical location of the Period 4 or Period 5 class (depending on the day) determines the lunch assignment for students/teachers for that day.

- Period 4 or 5 classes located on the FIRST floor are scheduled for lunch 1.
- Period 4 or 5 classes located on the SECOND floor are scheduled for lunch 2.
