To: [REDACTED]

Good morning, [REDACTED] We have some concerns to share this morning.

[REDACTED] seems very unstable right now. She was taking thread out of her pants yesterday and today she was refusing to wear a bra.

[REDACTED] continues to sag, blatantly ignoring redirects to pull up his pants. Tayvon walked out when I asked him to pull his pants up

We STAR tested today and I'm happy to say that the majority of students showed improvement, quite a few showing significant improvement.

[REDACTED] has had 7 consecutive days of good behavior-he is ready to move to additional time added into class.

[REDACTED] is very anxious and fidgety. Historically this is when we have had big problems.

[REDACTED] amazed us today. [REDACTED] was amping up in class and [REDACTED] was the voice of reason, encouraging [REDACTED] to be appropriate.

I will get the STAR scores to you at a later date so you can see the improvement.
